Section 6 - Home Emergency Assistance (pages 76 and 77)

We have amended the emergency cover provided for vermin to ensure there is consistency between all sections of the policy. A new definition for 'vermin' has been added to this section and the description under 'what is covered' for vermin is amended, as follows.

DEFINITIONS (WHAT OUR WORDS MEAN)

Vermin

Various species regarded as pests or nuisances including, but not limited to mice, rats, squirrels, insects, arachnids, worms or other disease-ridden creatures.

WHAT IS COVERED

Vermin

If you need to remove vermin from your home (this does not apply to animals and insects already in your home before you took out cover).

Before renewing your policy

Please check your Renewal Schedule and Statement of Facts documents very carefully to ensure they are complete, correct and fully reflect your current circumstances/requirements. It is very important to fully review and consider any endorsements and/or terms that are noted on the Renewal Schedule as failure to comply with the terms and conditions they impose could invalidate your cover.

The insurers need to be informed about any changes to the information shown or if the information is incorrect or incomplete. If they are not informed this may affect your ability to claim under the policy

Your buildings and overall contents sums insured should also be reviewed to ensure they will remain adequate. Our contents checklist may be useful for this purpose. It will also be useful to review 'what our words mean' within the policy wording to be certain that you understand what buildings and contents include. Index linking is not applied to fine art, antiques, collectables, jewellery or watches, so fluctuations in the value of art, precious metals and gemstones should be considered. The prices of jewellery & watches and the general price of gold & silver have increased significantly over recent years so regular valuation of items is important to ensure sums insured remain adequate.

Please note if the total value of jewellery & watches within your overall contents sum insured is £75,000 or greater (excluding items which you keep permanently in a vault or bank safe), the insurer will require you to install an approved safe at your home
